

SLAYER OF MOTHER ENDS HIS OWN LIFE

Roy Emerson of Creston, Iowa, After Beard Escapes From Guards and Hangs Self.

IS FOUND SOON AFTERWARDS

Search Ends in Finding of Dangling
Body Few Minutes After Death—
Was Out on Bail for Appeal.

KELESTON, Iowa, July 30.—Roy Emerson of Creston, Iowa, recently convicted of murdering his mother, early today escaped from guards who were taking him to jail at Mount Airy, and committed suicide by hanging himself under a highway bridge near here. He used his belt and barbed wire for a rope. Emerson, accused of leaving his mother to death with an iron fence and throwing her body down an elevator shaft in their undertaking establishment at Creston, last May, was convicted of second degree murder at Mount Airy July 19.

A few days later he was released on $15,000 bail pending appeal of his case to the supreme court. Accompanied by his 22-year-old wife, Emerson then went to Des Moines, where he stayed with friends while trying to obtain work.

Last night word was received from Creston police that Will Watson of Greenfield had repudiated his part of Emerson's bond. The convicted murderer was re-arrested and under guard of deputy sheriff Ed Hansen of Union county and two other men, started back to Mount Airy in a motor car.

When near Keleston the machine broke down and while repairs were being made Emerson escaped. Within a few minutes the entire community was searching the surrounding country and the alarm was spread all over the southwest section of the state. No trace of Emerson was found until a farmer reported that he had seen a man go under the highway bridge. The search parties went there and found Emerson's lifeless body dangling from a wire. He had been dead only a few minutes.

Here Is Habitat of Another Exile Follower of Former Kaiser William

Castle in Switzerland

Switzerland is fast becoming a nation of "down and out" kings, princes and noble satellites who have fled from their thrones and been divided of their rank by the great European political upheaval which developed in the wake of the world war. One of the latest "highnesses" to seek refuge in the little mountain republic of Switzerland is the ex-Duchess of Hesse. She has established her habitat in the famous Castle of Tausen (shown in the picture) in the lower Engadine. The castle was left to the Duke of Hesse by the former owner of Lingen.

Ex-Kaiser Karl of Austria has been in Switzerland ever since his flight from Vienna last winter.

NEGRO AT ARDMORE WOUNDS WHITE MAN

Another White Is Beaten Up With Six-Shooter by Black—Arrests
Made by Sheriff's Deputies.

Special to The World.

ARDMORE, July 30.—An altercation between two white men and a negro resulted in the shooting and wounding of one of the whites by the negro after he had severely beaten the other white man with a big number twenty after 3 o'clock Sunday evening in northeast Ardmore.

According to information given out at the sheriff's office, Elwood Estes and two negroes, Hughes Moore and Andy Moore, became involved in a dispute with some whites. The negro Moore is alleged to have been the man who beat Estes over the head with a cutting and edge and his wife, Walter Bates, a brother of the man attacked, came to his rescue and the negro turned the gun upon him and pulled the trigger.

The ball struck the victim in the right side above the third rib, and passed entirely through his body. Sheriff's officers rushed to the scene of the shooting and arrested the negro, handing him behind the bars of the county jail within a few minutes of the time of the attack.

Within a short time an angry mob had assembled in front of the jail but was dispersed after Sheriff Barrett appeared and stated that the law would take its course in a most expeditious manner.

The negroes, Moore and Bates, each have long police court records, the officers allege. Hughes Bates, the man shot, was severely discharged from the army. He is about 34 years of age and is said to have a good reputation as a peaceable law-abiding man.

Look for Potash at Tahlequah.

Special to The World.

TAHLEQUAH, July 30.—An examination tract of land lying some miles south from Tahlequah has been leased by persons who may do some prospecting for potash in the near future. There are a number of old salt lakes in the section where the land leased is located and there is a belief that there may be extensive potash deposits in and about the lakes. Salt was manufactured at a few of the places many years ago.

One Thing Worse Than a General Assault of the Sportive Chigger, Says He

MUSKOGEE, July 30.—One of the campers in the Cherokee hills came to Muskogee in a Ford car, riding all the way standing on his feet. He had the car driven to a garage and made a hasty trip to a doctor's office.

This is the story he told the doctor. "We took along a small bottle of iodine in case the chigger bites. In making a wide trip from camp, the iodine spilled into the seat. I drove for several hours in the hot sun before I discovered I was sitting in a small puddle of iodine."

There are a few things that are worse than chigger bites.

PARDON FOR INDIAN SLAYER IS SOUGHT

Nowata Citizens Want Release of Wolfe George Martin Who Is Under Twenty-year Sentence.

Special to The World.

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 30.—Residents of Nowata county are making an effort to secure a parole or pardon for Wolfe George Martin, an Indian, sentenced to serve 20 years in the penitentiary for the killing of Charles Keys three years ago last Fourth of July.

Martin, Keys and others are said to have been members of a card party at which considerable drinking occurred, the card game having been a "small" variety in which the winner is permitted to take a drink of the general supply of liquor and the loser is only permitted to smell it during the progress of the game. Keys and Martin quarreled. Keys is alleged to have attempted to attack Martin with a crowbar and Martin shot Keys in self defense. Martin pleaded guilty and a short time ago another of the party, believing he was about to be made a statement in which he declared that Keys would have killed Martin had the latter not shot him assistant. Martin is now an inmate of the penitentiary and is acting as postmaster of the prison.

Simple Operations Fitted Together

The business of Swift & Company is the fitting together of many simple operations.

No one thing in a packing business is particularly difficult for men trained to do it; but no one thing is enough.

Thousands of other operations, properly performed, are necessary for the completed processes. And some one must fit together all these thousands of simple operations.

The success with which a packing business performs its function of supplying the best possible meat products to the consumer with the greatest possible benefit to both him and the producer depends upon the energy, brains, experience, and faithful effort of the men trained in the business.

Swift & Company turns the producer's live stock into meat for the consumer at a profit of only a fraction of a cent a pound, because it fits these operations together with the least waste, overlapping, and friction.

Do you believe government direction could do it better?
